T. C. TILLOTSON, Register. Kansas City Stock Yards, Jul 14, 1913. Cattle receipts were better distributed through last week than usual, and dealers say it benefitted prices. They would like to see cattle come in that way every week. Grass cattle, which have been selling 75 cents to $1.50 higher than a year ago, declined 15 to 25 cents last week, while feed cattle, both steers and she stuff, which have been selling 50 cents to a dollar lower than a year ago, got a seasonable advance of 15 to 25 cents. Stockers and feeders lost their gain of the first of the week Quarantine cattle acted independent of the general matket, and also 25 to 40 cents higher all around. Killers have gotten a line on how the grass quarantines are killing, and are not afraid of them. Supply here today is 17,000 cattle, including 226 car loads of quanantine cattle, and receipts were liberal at other points. Fed cattle are about steady today, top steers $8.85, grassers 10 to 20 lower.

Brother's Slap Cost Him $1,000,000

Atlantic City. N. Y., July 14 -In the hearing of the case growing out of the fight to secure the $1,000,000 estate of Mrs. Jane Fortescue, here today, it developed that the reason Mrs Fortescue left her fortune to Armond T. Nichols, her secretary, instead of her brother William was because the brother gave her a black eye nearly twenty years ago, hence sister and brother had not spoken from that time until the day of Mrs. Fortescue's death.
